MEMBER ORIENTATION TODAY! 11:30

TODD is the President/CEO of Amicalola EMC. He was named to this position in 2015 after serving the members of Amicalola EMC for almost a decade. He served previously as Vice President of Corporate Administration and as Chief Operating Officer.

Payne graduated from Kennesaw State University with a B.S. in Business Administration & Management. He is a native of Pickens County and makes his home in Jasper with his wife.

In addition to his leadership role at Amicalola EMC, Payne serves locally on the Pickens County Advisory Committee of United Community Bank, the Pickens County Development Authority, the Bartow County/Pickens County Joint Development Authority, the Gilmer County/Pickens County Joint Development Authority and is a member of the Jasper Rotary Club.

On a statewide level, he is a member of the board of directors of the Georgia Energy Cooperative (GEC) and serves as Chairperson of the GEC Finance Committee. This cooperative was formed in September 2001 by its founding members, eleven electric membership corporations (EMCs), who joined together to create a not-for-profit, member-owned power supply cooperative. GEC is governed by a thirty-member Board of Directors, consisting of an EMC Director and an EMC Manager from each Member System.

He is also Chairman of the Georgia Rural Electric Managers' Association (GREMA) and a member of the Sowega Power board of directors. Sowega Power is a 98 MW gas turbine peaking electric generation unit in Baconton, Ga.
